

Abstract

Bachelor's thesis 'Current sports photography in Czech daily newspapers' focuses on current sports photography at specialised daily newspaper Sport's pages and sports section of Mladá fronta dnes. First of all the thesis presents genre of sports photography, its forms, creative process, used equipment and short history of sports photography in our area. In practical part of the thesis the aim was to analyse how the sports photography looks in current Czech daily newspapers. Used method was visual analysis. One part of this thesis comprises of interviews with great Czech photographers who are involved in sports photography.